

Finish the poem with the missing words from the candle.

But an	Early Sunday morning, on the day, Women saw at Jesus' tomb the stone was rolled away. Wondering and worried, they entered the tomb. The body of the Lord was not in the room.
The words brought joy and fear. Peace At the angel's order, the women ran to tell Sunday This news to the, who were hiding well. third The men did not believe the good news that they heard. third But later on that day Christ proved the women's word. fish Although the doors were, Jesus himself came And stood with his disciples—but not to shame or blame. locked "	of white. He said to the women, "Everything's all right.	The second secon
The words brought joy and fear. Sunday At the angel's order, the women ran to tell Sunday This news to the, who were hiding well. third The men did not believe the good news that they heard. third But later on that day Christ proved the women's word. fish Although the doors were, Jesus locked himself came locked And stood with his disciples—but not to shame or blame. disciples "	Jesus has been"
This news to the, who were hiding well. third The men did not believe the good news that they heard. third But later on that day Christ proved the women's word. fish Although the doors were, Jesus locked himself came locked And stood with his disciples—but not to shame or blame. disciples "be with you," he said. He showed is disciples hands and feet. raised He seemed to be a ghost till he had raised All with faith in Jesus celebrate each .	The words brought joy and fear.	Peace
Although the doors were, Jesus locked himself came locked And stood with his disciples—but not to shame or blame. disciples "be with you," he said. He showed is disciples hands and feet. raised He seemed to be a ghost till he had raised All with faith in Jesus celebrate each .	This news to the, who were hiding well. The men did not believe the good news that they heard.	third
"be with you," he said. He showed is hands and feet. disciples He seemed to be a ghost till he hadto eat. raised All with faith in Jesus celebrate each angel	himself came
He seemed to be a ghost till he had raised to eat. angel All with faith in Jesus celebrate each .		disciples
All with faith in Jesus celebrate each angel	He seemed to be a ghost till he had	raised to eat.	angel
We calchrote that as Christrass, so will us and day

We celebrate that, as Christ rose, so will we one day.